

Hogwash: an Idiots Guide to the JFK Assassination: Chronicle of a Death Foretold

When the bullets started flying in the limousine, and he was hit by several of them, Governor John Connally said: My God, they are going to kill us all. Those words may turn out to be prophetic. The Assassination of John F. Kennedy was, above all, a stage magic trick, an illusion designed to mislead and deceive, and to focus attention on planted evidence. No shots were fired from the SIXth Floor. The Texas School Book Depository was a complete decoy to draw attention away from the real shooters in the Dal-Tex Building, the Dallas County Records Building, and the Grassy Knoll, and away from the overthrow of an elected government. Without going into every time consuming detail of the hoax, this is a short explanation of how the appearance was created, or how the magic trick was done. This is a murder mystery in which you are involved. The Warren Commission proved Oswald did not do it but blamed him anyway. Where were you when the shots rang out?
