

I Lost My Underwear Today: And Other Flights of Imagination

Skillfully wending words, sounds, and images, author/illustrator, Colonel Korne paints poetic pictures that catapult readers into a witty world of rhymes. Whether weaving a web of intrigue in Spider, Spider, rhapsodizing reminiscently in Memories of Grandpa, or the provocative pun in Honeydew, Honeydew, he hits the heart, not with sap, but with a refreshing twist that draws in everyone who picks up this unique volume. Childrens poetry? Hardly, but make no mistake. Kids love the Colonel. Adults will chuckle at the double entendres resplendent in the Colonels work and identify with the trials that vex characters like Emily Lou, the hippo ballerina. All ages will relish the artwork that ranges from realism to cartoon sketches. Educators will appreciate the natural use of literary devices: The Butterfly as a picture poem, the synonyms in I Lost My Underwear Today, as well as wonderful examples of irony, alliteration, and metaphor replete in this masterfully written work.
