

To the Mafia With Love

This thriller you wont want to put down. A riveting account of one persons deliverance from darkness into the blinding light of Christ. A testimony to the power of the cross over the cartel. - Chuck Colson As a child in Colombia, Marta Estrada dreamed of doing something great for her country. In 1983 that dream ended when she found herself in Rikers Island jail in New York City facing fifteen years to life on drug trafficking charges. What follows is the remarkable story of one womans call to reach the Colombian Mafia for Christ. From the opening chapter, to the final, sobering conclusion, To the Mafia With Love points vividly to the reality of Gods love for the Colombian Mafia. Exciting, provoking, sometimes controversial, this extraordinary book is sure to challenge your views, test your faith, and bring renewed commitment. Marta is currently pastoring in Colombia where she continues to reach the Colombian drug cartels with a message of peace and forgiveness through Jesus Christ.
